Commitments

Board members are expected to financially contribute to both the Library and the Friends of the Library annual giving campaigns as an affirmation of their commitment to the Library's future.

During your three-year term, you will be expected to attend at least one local, regional or state trustee educational program. You will also be expected to attend one Delaware County Libraries Board of Trustee meeting over a two-year period.

Below is a list of additional commitments expected of Board members.

Do you agree if appointed as a Trustee:

	Yes	No	May be
To remain a current Library cardholder and become an active user familiar with the materials, services, and programs offered?
To use your contacts with other community organizations so as to provide information sharing to the Library Board and so as to encourage new and to further develop community partnerships?
To serve on a committee(s) providing your particular expertise for the benefit of improving the Library?
To learn and grow as a trustee by participating in trustee training opportunities?
To make a financial contribution to the Library's annual appeal which is appropriate in amount given your stature as a trustee and community leader and relative to your ability to give?
To join the Friends of Radnor Memorial Library?
To tell the story of the Radnor Memorial Library to those you know and promote the Library as a vital community organization which serves primarily the Radnor community?
To interact with elected officials locally, in the county, in Pennsylvania, and at the federal level to support funding and other library-related issues?
To regularly attend monthly Library Board meetings and other Library events?

By submitting this document, I indicate my agreement to the commitments listed above.
