Youth Services Summer Intern
CONTRACT
2026

By signing below, I agree to comply with the following expectations in the role of Youth Services Summer Intern at the Radnor Memorial Library:

- I am responsible for my scheduled hours and for signing my time sheet for every shift that I work.
- If I need to change my schedule, I will contact other summer interns to obtain a substitute or switch shifts and notify the Head of Youth Services of the change. If I cannot find a substitute, I will notify the Head of Youth Services right away.
- In the event of illness, I will call the Youth Services Librarian on duty for that day (or Reference Librarian if a Youth Services Librarian is not available).
- If I will be arriving late for a shift, I will call the library to notify the staff.
- I will dress appropriately and professionally and maintain a neat and clean appearance (No shorts, tank tops, flip-flops, or athletic wear).
- I will not use my cell phone while working at the desk without special permission from the Head of Youth Services.
- I understand I may have a drink at the desk (with a lid) and an occasional small non-messy snack as long as it's not a visible distraction.
- I will maintain an attitude of availability and eagerness to help patrons at any point (for example, I won't get too absorbed in one particular task that I'm not free to help patrons), and I will smile at everyone who approaches me with a question.
- I will be respectful of all library staff and will work courteously with the other departments. When I am the only staff member scheduled to work at the children's desk (on evenings and weekends), I report to the Reference Librarian on duty.
